BIO

Kasai Mathew William Guthrie, a 20 year old national speaker and youngest Black Enterprise Modern Man, is on a mission to play his part to empower his generation through access to information. Kasai advanced at a young age, entering high school in 7th grade and even starting three companies at 14. By age 16, Kasai secured sponsorship from Capital One, an international bank to support the R&D of his youth focused financial literacy app, Neggster.

Growing up one of four children in a single family home, Kasai was able to master the skillset needed to overcome the typical challenges kids in is situation are faced with. Recruited by the state of Delaware's Department of Prevention, Kasai used his life experiences and strategies to create a training program for youth called Success in Life Now...Teen Edition.

Kasai has won numerous awards for his business endeavors including 1st place for DECA and BPA (Business Professionals of America). His prized project is the We Need Our Fathers campaign (WNOF). WNOF is a national campaign Kasai shares his personal story of how he overcame a life changing tragedy from his father not being present in his life. Through the WNOF program, Kasai empowers other youth to start their journey for healing from the affects of an absent father and inspires and equips both absent fathers and their children to reconcile. Kasai now provides his WNOF program as online training program, in person workshops or coaching and speaking engagements. Currently a sophomore at University of Delaware, Kasai is on a personal mission to save 10K youth from the effects of an absent father. Will you play a part in making this happen?

HELP ME SAVE 10K YOUTH

WE NEED OUR FATHERS PROGRAM

The We Need Our Fathers is an award-winning program, which earned Mr. Guthrie the designation as the youngest Black Enterprise Modern Man at age 16. From Mr. Guthrie's life altering experience with his father being absent from his life, he has developed speaking topics and programs designed for both children affected by an absent father AND for fathers who are absent from their child's life. WNOF walks participants through Mr. Guthrie's personal 5 step process for healing and reconciliation for those that are ready for the next step. The WNOF team understands that reconciliation is not always possible and includes information on other options that provide encouragement and support for participants.

Part of WNOF is for Mr. Guthrie to provide insight into the mind of youth suffering from the affects of an absent father. Recruited to speak at national fatherhood conventions and local fatherhood agency events, Mr. Guthrie brings insight and strategy uniquely from the youth or child's perspective. Most that attend Mr. Guthrie's presentations and talks are shocked and intrigued by what Mr. Guthrie shares are the top five things youth want from their father (#1 is going to make you think twice!).

We Need Our Fathers content and program can be provided as a keynote, workshop, multi-day or multi-week program or an online curriculum. Mr. Guthrie is also available for coaching for groups and one-on-one.

SUCCESS IN LIFE NOW: TEEN EDITION

10 NINJA SECRETS

HOW TO BRING OUT
THE SUPERHERO IN YOU

The Success in Life NOW... Teen Edition is a training program taught and/or coached by Kasai Guthrie. After hearing Mr. Guthrie's story of overcoming adversity and life's challenges to successfully start business and start high school in the 7th grade, the state of Delaware requested for Mr. Guthrie to design a training to teach other Delaware Youth the strategies to do the same. Mr. Guthrie has a unique approach to presenting the information where he is able to build immediate credibility with the attendees by showing all of the challenges he had to overcome which most are facing today (living in poverty, homelessness, public assistance, an absent father, disappointment from not getting things he saw his friends had and the list goes on). Attendees are not only inspired to achieve their dreams and strive for greatness but are equipped with the proven strategies and how to implement them daily. To increase the success of the attendees, a workbook is provided for them to review as needed.

The Success in Life NOW... Teen Edition can be provided as a Keynote, workshop, multi-day or multi-week program or an online curriculum. Mr. Guthrie is also available for coaching for groups and one-on-one.

TESTIMONIALS

Finally did it... 15 years of pain released! Can't tell me nothing! Finally talked to my Pop. Can't thank you enough for your help man. Your speech got to me!
- L.L.: 16 year old male attendee

Man! I can't even begin to tell you how I feel after seeing Kasai's video. I sent to one of my friends who hasn't been in his kids life in years and he immediately called his kids. I am sending Kasai's video to everyone I know. The way he puts it is simple but mind opening.
- M. Porter Father

Thank you Kasai for sharing your video. I showed it to my son and it really helped him to open up. Please let us know when you are doing a workshop in our area. My son needs to be there.
